[Speaker 1] (0:00 - 1:32)

Okay, thank you. And in the meantime, we are fighting for another case making an application to the court to recover this £19,000. So whenever we get it, like you know, then whatever money you paid, I will give you some money back or the Alex.

But it takes time, so you have to have patience. Quoting, judiciary, patience, you know, you did so many cases, so you know that already. You know that already.

And what I will do both letters I sent to them, I will email to you, then you read, okay, you read, but do not text me anything, don't email anything. If you need to talk, then you talk to me. And hopefully, fingers crossed, if your sister is sensible, behave sensibly, she will agree to pay pay this money now, then it resolves everything.

No, she hasn't paid more than 15,000 because, because her job was not, because we have done the job, like, you know, from the beginning, like claimants, so much job. But she only instructed solicitors to respond, only a few jobs, not the job we did, the amount of job we did. No, she has engaged a solicitor, she spent some money, I don't know how much she has spent.

At least minimum, I think minimum £5,000. What did she spend?

[Speaker 2] (1:32 - 2:08)

Yeah, Mr. Abu, she made a civil case at the same time as the criminal case, the lawyer who told him she was not reasonable, and he came by himself. And he said he had been paid 6,000. And then he was hiding on the fifth floor of Reading County Court, and he had to drive her home.

So he wasn't entirely appreciate her, but he was on his side. He thought it wasn't fair, what she did wasn't fair. And then Mrs. Pickman said, so they didn't think that she was actually...

[Speaker 1] (2:08 - 3:28)

I think that's a different case. Look, I'm losing the track now. I'm losing the track now.

So when you need this information, we'll come to you. One after another, I will, I will, because otherwise I will lose the track, right? I don't want to lose the track.

I will email to you these two pieces, the pieces of job we have done, we'll email you. In the meantime, try to convince Alex, okay? Tell him that, look, it's only a matter of time.

You're helping us a lot. This case, look, we are chasing for the cause. It's already gone.

You can show him these two letters, okay? I'll email him and then explain to him. So if he is nice and kind, probably he will agree to pay a few thousand pounds.

And tell him that you'll get it back, no worries, because the lawyer is chasing for the cause. No, no, not 15, whatever he agrees to pay, be happy with that, okay? I hope he does, I'm not sure he will, but I hope he does.

Yeah, yeah, I'll send you these documents. You just send it to him. Shall I send it to him as well?

If you want, I can send it to him as well. Okay, I'll send it to him as well, okay? And I'll send it to you as well, no problem.

And be in touch, be nice and resolve it. Yes, yes, yes, thank you. Okay, yeah, I'm helping you out.

Look, I did not stop. I said I'm delivering the job, okay? Thank you, thank you.

Okay, great, great. Thank you. Bye, bye.

Okay, bye, bye.
