[Speaker 2] (0:00 - 0:08)

I wanted to, uh, hi, hi. So you need this to be signed urgently.

[Speaker 1] (0:10 - 0:29)

Right, if you do not do it, I know what I'll have to do. I won't be able to work on your case. Because I explained to you so many times, nicely, so nicely, and then I find, if you are, like, if I'm being, like, you know, if I find difficulties taking instructions from you, I won't be able to continue your case.

[Speaker 2] (0:29 - 0:33)

Okay, I want to ask you one question, is that you have, you are trying to claim it.

[Speaker 1] (0:33 - 0:41)

Yeah, I told you many times, you need only the stages, when the time will come, you draft your statement, you put everything, we'll tell you.

[Speaker 2] (0:41 - 0:43)

Okay, so you don't need it now.

[Speaker 1] (0:43 - 0:44)

I understand your lawyers, they do the case.

[Speaker 2] (0:44 - 0:45)

Okay.

[Speaker 1] (0:45 - 0:48)

If you want to run your case, you are more than welcome to run your case.

[Speaker 2] (0:48 - 0:50)

Okay, so right now, nothing else is needed.

[Speaker 1] (0:50 - 0:55)

But if you get difficult with me, yes, difficult with me, I won't be able to continue your case and I'll just drop it.

[Speaker 2] (0:57 - 1:05)

Okay, so later, I will be able to say about the difficulty I had and how she exerted undue influence, prevented people.

[Speaker 1] (1:05 - 1:23)

No, I don't want that, I drafted something. Right now, we drafted something, we don't need all the details, I have been telling you. But you do not try to understand, we'll tell you when we need what.

Right now, the elements, the information we have drafted, and that's sufficient for this case to go ahead.

[Speaker 2] (1:23 - 1:27)

And you feel the judge will consider you.

[Speaker 1] (1:28 - 1:37)

Yes, that's why my decision, come on, please, is how she behaved with us. She did not disclose the will.

[Speaker 2] (1:37 - 1:42)

But I've actually written about how she prevented my father contact with you.

[Speaker 1] (1:42 - 1:57)

Look, listen, we read it, right? If you need anything, we'll ask you, we'll put it on. You gave us information, we'll make a note of it, and we'll do it when we need it.

Right now, we don't need all these things.

[Speaker 2] (1:58 - 2:01)

Okay, see, I'll sign it for you.

[Speaker 1] (2:01 - 2:12)

Yeah, please sign it today, and then I will receive the particulars of claim and claim form for your new case against the will. We'll send it to you tomorrow.

[Speaker 2] (2:13 - 2:26)

Oh, see, you're making another case which I'm going to sign tomorrow. Today, I'll sign this today, and if my printer doesn't work, I'll go to the print shop, I'll sign it, scan it, and send it to you. Both of them.

[Speaker 1] (2:26 - 2:29)

You signed the client care letter.

[Speaker 2] (2:29 - 2:29)

Yes.

[Speaker 1] (2:30 - 2:42)

We are challenging the will. So, particulars of claim in relation to that one, I'll give it to you tomorrow. Then, also, you need to sign it.

And then it will go to court on Monday.

[Speaker 2] (2:43 - 2:48)

So, you've got one more item for me to sign. These two, I must sign, and one more item to sign.

[Speaker 1] (2:49 - 2:57)

Yeah, one more, this is in relation to the challenge with the will. You'll see it tomorrow. We are giving it one after another.

Just send this one now.

In that notice, I have let you know that she knew Alex. Many people she could contact, even me. So, she could have given me the will in the last 18 months.

I mentioned that at the end. And I mentioned how people impersonated my father and signed, and I have a proof of that, but I registered both. So, at his address, because they wanted me to think I was living there, and they lied about his death after he had died.

So, you don't need that right now, I gather.

[Speaker 1] (3:25 - 3:34)

It will go to the court. It will go to the court when the time comes. We'll take a statement from you again.

Right now, just leave it right now.

[Speaker 2] (3:35 - 3:45)

Okay, I'm going to sign these two. I'm going to get my printer working. And if there's a problem, it's a very slow printer.

And if there's a problem, I'll go to the print shop. And I'll be able to do this to you.

[Speaker 1] (3:45 - 3:48)

That's one thing. And another point I would like to mention about you.

[Speaker 2] (3:48 - 3:49)

Yes.

[Speaker 1] (3:49 - 4:05)

You know, after doing this, the first part of the Wilf case, I would have to file a case. Yes. And after I do this, I will get a case worker, and I will be working from behind.

And I will appoint another barrister on your case. Okay?

[Speaker 2] (4:06 - 4:10)

So, what about getting the money back? You have...

[Speaker 1] (4:10 - 4:11)

This case is on when the cases are on.

[Speaker 2] (4:14 - 4:17)

So, okay, okay, so...

[Speaker 1] (4:17 - 4:26)

Whoever the barrister is, and the other paralegals, the people, they are working on your case. They will be working on your case. And I'm behind anyway.

[Speaker 2] (4:26 - 4:42)

I don't know how much money Alex is going... I don't know how much money Alex can give. Because this $15,000, you have every right to get it back.

But, I mean, if she's going to make up more lies, this is what you know about whether there is... whether you have a chance, because she's going to tell a lot of lies.

[Speaker 1] (4:43 - 5:06)

And that... But no worries. Leave it right now.

Please leave it right now. And let's just completely have that job. I told you either way.

You are paying, like, 400 pounds per month. You keep paying. And I will sign the client letter.

I will give you the job, like, delivered tomorrow. And then I will appoint another barrister and paralegal on this case to move forward all the cases.

[Speaker 2] (5:07 - 5:29)

Okay. Oh, you need more staff? And is it that woman?

Is it that woman? Yeah. Is it that woman?

No, the paralegal is a woman? Yeah. Okay.

It's that lady that originally you had asked to get a statement? Originally you talked to the owner about giving a statement about my sister? That lady?

[Speaker 1] (5:30 - 5:50)

This is very, very good. Oh, look, I tell you, this lady is very good and very efficient. She has completed all the requirements.

And the barrister I'm giving, he has been practising for 35 years. Okay. He's my barrister.

So please, if you do not... Then leave it. Then you have to do everything by yourself.

[Speaker 2] (5:51 - 5:58)

No, I will send you the two now. And then if you send me a third one, I just sign it and send it. If you're going to send it to me today, okay.

[Speaker 1] (5:58 - 6:00)

Okay, please. Please help me out to help you out.

[Speaker 2] (6:01 - 6:01)

Okay, okay.

[Speaker 1] (6:02 - 6:03)

You are helping me to help you out.

[Speaker 2] (6:03 - 6:07)

Okay, okay, okay. Okay, then please. Thank you.

Okay, bye. Bye.
