[Speaker 1] (0:33 - 1:45)

Yes, yes, right. You know what happened? My, like, you know, my mobile, somebody snatched it from the road when I was talking.

So, this is, that's why my old mobile gone. This is my another mobile. I had to put, elect in a eSIM card.

Yeah, so, and now we deliver the job for you. So, you know, as part of the client care letter, the second part of the client care letter, you know, all job done for you. And, you know, I explained to you earlier, now I will hand over your case to another senior barrister.

Okay? Yeah, this is for your case. You know, according to the client care letter, I have done the job now for you.

For against the, against the filing, against the will, right? Yeah. And now, from after that move on, now I will hand over to another barrister.

We'll talk about it. And then you sign the client care letter to instruct that barrister. Okay?

It's from my chambers.

[Speaker 2] (1:47 - 1:48)

It's not your chambers.

[Speaker 1] (1:52 - 1:53)

No, our same chambers.

Oh, okay. Okay. So, you're not, um, okay, I've written some comments.

[Speaker 1] (2:12 - 2:30)

No, don't leave the comments. That's the documents you have signed it. That's it.

Fine. Don't leave any comments or anything. Okay.

I will talk about it because the, the barrister, you know, the, who will be dealing with your case, like, you know, he will be back in next week. So, we'll talk about it. Okay?

[Speaker 2] (2:32 - 2:36)

So, you're not going to be dealing with your case on someone else?

[Speaker 1] (2:36 - 2:37)

Sorry?

[Speaker 2] (2:37 - 2:40)

Your past case is on someone else?

[Speaker 1] (2:41 - 2:57)

Yes, there's another barrister and another junior barrister, Keshwa Khan. But still, I'm there. I'll be in touch with you.

No worries. Oh, okay then. Yeah.

Hello?

[Speaker 2] (2:57 - 2:58)

Yeah, yeah.

[Speaker 1] (2:59 - 3:01)

Okay then. Thank you. Bye.

Bye.
