Sir
I won't disturb you. I am glad I was able to make your deadline. Letting you know very briefly I feel medically neglected and will be going to hospital soon . I have a severe neck problem. My father is bedridden but if he is alive he will help if I genuinely need see a doctor privately. Sister won't let dad talk to me on the phone she refuses registered post sent to dad. I think she told the GPS secretary not to let me know dad alive or dead

Sorry I won't disturb until you tell me the decision has come

Currently waiting times for UK visitors visa 15 to 21 days

Alex back Saturday after next one

Respectfully
Mohini
